Magazine Publication Business For Sale

Horse Enthusiasts - Look no further for a business that appeals to your passion

This well established publication is being offered for sale for the first time in many years.

This is a Monday to Friday opportunity with the ability to work from home. Doesn't need leased premises so overheads are low.

Rarely does a business such as this come to the market. The magazine is produced monthly both in a hard copy format as well as online. The distribution network is set up and continues to expand. The magazine enjoys a large subscriber database of advertisers, many of which advertise on a regular basis. Many established associations with peak industry bodies, very well respected within the industry. Database of contributors, you'll never have to pay for articles. Doesn't need an experienced publisher to run it, more suited to a person with a passion for the industry. Currently located South East Queensland, however could easily be relocated to anywhere in Australia.
